LONDON No 1 BLUE GIN

The London No.1 presents itself in a luminous, pale yet bright bluish aquamarine colour. The nose reveals delightful scents of juniper berries and balsamic aromas. The alcohol is well integrated, elegant and clean. A delicate palate with some viscosity and a fine, dry mouth feel. Mild but very aromatic with quality balsamic notes. Very balanced overall with a long, sensual finish. London No 1 gin is the ideal gin to mix with a quality tonic, however London no 1 also works well in Classic Gin Cocktails such as a Gin Martini or Aviation. The smoothness of London No 1 means it can be drunk neat with ice.

BROKERS GIN

The rich mixture of natural ingredients, each carefully selected, makes Broker's a drink of outstanding flavour and freshness. It is the perfect basis for a gin and tonic, unquestionably one of life's great pleasures. Broker's is made from 100% English grain, quadruple distilled and flavoured with 10 botanicals. It may have a quirky bottle but its status as a serious contender in the gin world is unquestionable. The botanicals for Broker's Gin are: Juniper (Italy and Macedonia), Coriander (France), Orris (Italy), Nutmeg (Indonesia or West Indies), Cassia Bark (South East Asia), Cinnamon (Sri Lanka), Liquorice (Spain), Orange Peel (Spain), Lemon Peel (Spain), Angelica Root (France).

BATHTUB GIN

Made in ultra-small batches by the wonderfully cryptic Professor Cornelius Ampleforth; Bathtub Gin follows the traditional infusion methods to produce an exquisite delight. With a light touch of the botanical mixing with heady perfumes, this gin will please all.

BATSHIT MENTAL IDEAS-AGED BATHTUB GIN

A reet tasty barrel aged gin Thick with juniper, lime and lemon drizzle cake Sweet candy cane and a resurgence finish A touch of syrupy honey alongside pleasant bitters influence, reminiscent of a pink gin cocktail.

BLIND TIGER PIPER CUBEBA (BLUE)

A unique gin with a beautiful dark blue bottle Spicy tones are immediately balanced by oranges, lemons and orange blossom The nose immediately come junipers in front shortly afterwards with all hints of herbs Gives a slightly different taste but is in perfect harmony with the other botanicals Bittersweet taste of ripe oranges and lemons.

BLIND TIGER IMPERIAL SECRETS (GREEN)

In the seclusion of our concealed distillery, our master distiller handcrafted this smooth and lush, yet refreshing gin with three meticulously distilled imperial black teas from Assam, Cashmere & Yunnan.

LITTLE BIRD GIN

Little Bird London Dry Gin is made in small batches in the metropolis itself. The recipe includes 10 botanicals including grapefruit, orange and ginger (represented by the lady on the bottle). This works well both in a martini and as part of a classic G&T.

CAORUNN GIN

Caorunn Gin is made from a combination of 6 traditional gin botanicals and 5 unique Celtic botanicals. It is distilled in small batches and uses the freshest highland water from the surrounding mountains to ensure the Gin is as clean as it can be.

MARTIN MILLER'S GIN

Martin Miller's Gin uses pure Icelandic water for a smooth, rounded finish The worlds most awarded gin uses traditional maceration techniques and a pot stillled distillation.

Oliver's Ginfomation

MONKEY 47 DRY GIN

The fact it hails from the Black Forest in Germany is not the only thing unique about Monkey 47 Dry Gin – it also contains cranberries! Overall, 47 different botanicals go into Monkey 47 (hence the name). The result is a fresh and zesty, award-winning gin that suggests eucalyptus on the nose, lime and juniper on the palate and a citrus and pine finish. Monkey 47 was the brainchild of RAF Wing Commander Monty Collins. He retired to the Black Forest after the war and sourced most of the botanicals used in his creation from his back garden. Ever the posh British eccentric, he owned a pet monkey – which can probably account for Monkey 47's unusual name.

PUERTO DE INDIAS STRAWBERRY GIN

A very pink strawberry gin from Sevilla. Described as a mistake by the master-distiller at the Puerto de Indias distillery after a failed attempt at making a strawberry liqueur with fresh strawberries, he added the mashed strawberries to a new gin he was working on and the rest as they say is history.

PINK PEPPER GIN

Fresher, spicy notes of pink pepper, juniper and cardamom are prominent. On the palate the gin is full-bodied and intensely aromatic. Designed to be an entirely unique, intense and aromatic gin. Liquid evolves and warms up allowing notes of patisserie; vanilla, Tonka and honey to come to the forefront. Perfect for sipping or in cocktails.

SHARISH GIN BLUE MAGIC (PORTUGUESE)

A bright blue Portuguese gin from the Sharish range. The only difference from the regular Sharish is the magnificent colour that comes from all natural extracts of the Clitoria Ternatea flower, also known as Asian pigeonwings, bluebellvine, or the blue pea. According to the producer this Gin has a magical touch. When tonic water is added and both liquids are mixed it will transform into a light pink hue! In Sharish Blue Magic delightful notes of strawberry and fresh raspberries give it a sweet, refreshing flavour. Warming notes of coriander and cinnamon develop behind the juicy fruit and there are traces of citrus and other sweet spices from the botanicals that include juniper, coriander, angelica root, ginger, cinnamon, cardamom, lemon peel, strawberry and raspberry.

PORTOBELLO GIN

Portobello Road Gin is a traditional London Dry Gin made up of 9 botanicals including; Juniper berries, lemon peel, bitter orange peel, coriander seeds, orris root, angelica root, cassia bark, liquorice and nutmeg. Being bottled at 42% gives this Gin enough alcoholic strength to carry and sustain the flavour of the nine botanicals. Portobello Road Gin was created with reference to antique gins from The Ginstitute's very own collection and was overseen by a tasting panel of industry experts. The gin itself was distilled by 8th generation London Distiller Mr Charles Maxwell in the traditional London Dry Style while keeping in line with the growing modern gin scene of using mysterious botanicals. The presentation of the gin bottle itself is bartender friendly and the label is reminiscent of the gin of yesterday. Each bottle is individually numbered and signed by the proprietors. Portobello Road gin is handmade and produced in small batches which pays deference to the long standing traditions of London Dry gin.

OPIHR GIN

Inspired by the Ancient Spice Route, Opihr is crafted using exotic hand-picked botanicals such as spicy Cubeb berries from Indonesia, Black Pepper from India and Coriander from Morocco. Bursts of citrus balance the rich, earthy aromas and soft spice of Opihr Oriental Spiced Gin. Opihr epitomises the exotic intensity of the Orient and awakens the senses to a new style of gin. Opihr is traditionally distilled in copper pot stills at G&J Distillers, Warrington, the world's second largest gin distiller who have been distilling British Superior Quality London Dry Gin since 1761.

LANGLEYS NO 8 GIN

Langley's No 8 Distilled London Gin has a secret recipe which is a blend of 8 different botanicals which are harvested at their freshest. With a rounded smooth finish and the right balance of alcohol, this is a great gin.
